

Driving to Bull Mountain Ranch

From Denver International Airport:

Good Weather Route

Time - approximately 3 hours

Take E470 north to Interstate 25.
Take Interstate 25 North to Fort Collins.
Take Colorado 14 West through Ft Collins.
Take US 287 North toward Laramie.

4WD shortcut, always call us first to confirm passable conditions:

1 mile north of Tie Siding, take Sportsman's Lake Road West.
The first 5 miles has blind downhill curves with narrow bridges, use extreme caution. Do not attempt to cross any ponds in the road, go around them.

Travel approx. 20 miles to settlement with 20 mailboxes by road.
400 yards past settlement, turn West at BMR sign.
3 miles later, turn South at BMR sign, it is 7 miles to Ranch.

Approaching Laramie, there is a large cement plant on the West side of 287.
Drive as if you were going for a job interview at the plant.
Cross the RR tracks to get to the plant office, turn South on Sand Creek Road.
Bear left at both "Ys" in the road.
You will finally see a "T" intersection sign, SLOW DOWN.
Go right at the "T" intersection.
500 yards past the intersection, go right (West) at the BMR sign.
3 miles later, turn South at BMR sign, it is 7 miles to Ranch.

Bad Weather Route

Take E470 north to Interstate 25.
Take Interstate 25 North to Cheyenne.
Take Interstate 80 West to Laramie.
Go West at Exit 311, Route 230.
Stay on Route 230 (Do Not turn on Route 130) for 12 miles
At the 12 mile marker and the Flying Y sign, turn South on Brubaker Lane.
After 5 miles, the lane veers East. Go East one mile.
At the "Y" turn South (right) on Sand Creek Road.
You will finally see a "T" intersection sign, SLOW DOWN.
Go right at the "T" intersection.
500 yards past the intersection, go right (West) at the BMR sign.
3 miles later, turn South at BMR sign, it is 7 miles to Ranch.
